Join Us for Summer Reading Fun!

Registration for our summer reading program Be Creative @ Ilsley Public Library starts June 1st. The 2009 program is open to all youth and brochures describing programs and activities are at the Library.

Pick up a reading log, set a personal goal and then track your progress. If you're logging books this summer, you may include both books you read and those that are read to you. If you're entering grade 6 or above, you may opt for a punch card instead of a log.

Starting August 3rd you may stop in with your reading log and select a free book. We'll also award you a Certificate of Achievement and enter your name for a grand prize drawing.

Participation in all parts of this program is free. Some events require advance tickets or registration. Sign up sheets and tickets are available at the youth services circulation desk two weeks prior to each program. Please stop in or call with any questions.

Kids Collage

Each week during our summer reading program we'll create a Kids Collage at Ilsley. You're welcome to stop by when the time is right for you to make your contribution. Every Monday we'll put out a fresh set of materials for you to work with. Starts June 22nd.

Build a Book Trailer

Mondays June 29th, July 6th & 13th 10:30 a.m.

Like a movie trailer, a book trailer is a short, hip intro to a book that makes anyone who sees it want to read it. We'll create trailers for cool books and then put them online for all to see.
