October 2009

Halloween will soon be here. This month we'll have two drop-in programs to get you geared up for the day. During the weeks these are scheduled, you're welcome to come to the youth services department any time to do the activities.

Pasta Skeletons

October 19th—24st

Stop by and build a skeleton out of different types of pasta. This makes a great Halloween decoration and reminder of the names of some of our bones.

Skull Beads

October 22nd—31st

From October 22nd—31st we'll have hundreds of skull beads for crafting arm bands, bracelets, chokers, necklaces and chains. Create something spooky to wear for Halloween.

Storyhour

At Ilsley Public Library:

Wednesdays at 10:30—Toddlers (ages 1 & 2)
Thursdays at 10:30—Preschool (ages 3 & up)

At Sarah Partridge Community Library:

Tuesdays at 10:30—Preschool

Storyhour provides a positive social learning experience for children. During storyhour children engage language through rhymes, songs and stories. They also encounter different types of art by seeing many different types of picture book illustrations and using different materials to create a craft.

Teddy Bear Tea Party

Thursday October 22nd 10:30 a.m.

Bring your favorite teddy bear and join us for tea and treats, stories and songs, and a "beary" special craft project.

Letter Writing Contest

The Center for the Book in the Library of Congress, invites kids from grades 4 – 12 to enter this year's Letters about Literature letter writing competition. To enter you simply write a personal letter to an author explaining how that author's work somehow changed the readers' view of their world. There are three competition levels, and awards are given at the state and national levels. Stop by Ilsley for an entry form with more details or download it from www.lettersaboutliterature.org. Submission must be postmarked by December 12, 2009.

Healthy Living

Cold and flu season is upon us. We want to keep all our kids healthy and prevent the spread of illness. We ask that you do not bring or drop off your child at the library if he or she is sick.

Still need some books, DVDs or audio books to help cheer up a child? Feel free to call youth services at 388-4097 and talk with us about what you need. We'll assemble a set of materials for you to pick up and we'll include a special get-well treat.
