First Wednesday Talk
March 3, 7 p.m.
*In Search of Nirvana:
Rock-‘n-Roll Religion.*
The promise and dangers of the legendary grunge band Nirvana and its lead singer Kurt Cobain will be examined by George Dennis O'Brien, former president of both Bucknell University and the University of Rochester.

Otter Creek Lecture:
Wise on Weeds: An Introduction to Invasive Species
Thursday March 11, 7 p.m.

Join us for the season's final Cabin Fever Lecture, given by the Nature Conservancy's Invasive Species Coordinator, Sharon Plumb.

Sponsored by the Otter Creek Audubon Society.

Chess – lessons and competition
Sunday afternoons in March, 1 - 4 p.m.
"Monty"

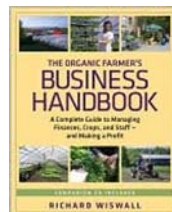

Montgomery, national chess master, will instruct and supervise competitions for all ages.

Downloadable audiobook demonstration
Saturday, March 20 in the library lobby
Drop in any time and learn about the library's downloadable audiobook services, Overdrive and Netlibrary. Combined, these two services provide over 3,400 fiction and nonfiction titles including many that are compatible with iPods.

On Display: Joan N. Allen, Middlebury, displays a collection of her hand-appliquéd fabric landscapes.

*Organic Farming with Richard Wiswall
Sunday, March 14
2 p.m.*

Farming smarter, not harder, is the core of Wiswall's advice based on his own 27 years experience at Cate Farm in Plainfield, VT.

Our Bill of Rights in Action
A reading and discussion series
Wednesday, March 17, 12:15 p.m.

The constitutional protections spelled out in the Bill of Rights are not self-enforcing, and protecting them is not easy. Join us every third Wednesday through May for a fascinating exploration of what happens when challenges to liberties arise. For our second meeting, David Clark and attorney Wanda Otero-Ziegler will lead a discussion of In our Defense: the Bill of Rights in Action by Ellen Ackerman and Carolyn Kennedy. Co-sponsored with ACLU-Vt. Copies available in the lobby.

Bridge players!
Want to play a friendly game? Need a partner? Come to an open bridge game:

Documentary: A Life Apart: Hasidism in America
Sunday, March 28 at 4:30 p.m.

In an historic migration after World War II, Hasidism found its most vital center in America. Integrating critical and analytical scholarship with a portrait of the daily life, beliefs, and history of contemporary Hasidic Jews in New York City, the film focuses on the conflicts, burdens, and rewards of the Hasidic way of life. Free. All are invited. Discussion and potluck supper to follow film.

Sponsored by Havurah of Addison County.
