Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring and the Music of 1911

Wednesday March 1,
7 p.m.
Location: Town Hall
Theater

Igor Stravinsky's the Rite of Spring is widely considered the most influential composition of the twentieth century. Pianist Michael Arnowitz examines this landmark work, as well as other pieces written in 1911 by Ravel, Schoenberg, Bartok, and Rachmaninov. NOTE: this program will be held at the Town Hall Theater.

Otter Creek

Cabin Fever Talk
Wild Utah:
America's Red Rock
Wilderness
Thursday,
March 9 at 7 p.m.

WILD UTAH is a travelling multimedia educational event, presented by Travis Hammill, the Eastern Grassroots Organizer with the Southern Utah Wilderness Alliance (SUWA). Hammill will share images and films of the stunning beauty, cultural history, and natural habitats of many types of plants and animals and discuss the threats that are posed to these amazing areas such as off-road vehicle use, fracking, oil drilling, potash and tar-sands production. Hammill will also discuss ways that attendees of the presentation can help preserve these wonders of Utah. Join the movement to protect America's public lands!

PV Revolution!

Richard Wolfson
March 15 at 7p.m.

Solar energy installations are sprouting up all over Vermont—especially photovoltaic systems that convert sunlight energy directly into electricity. In this talk Middlebury College Professor of Physics Richard Wolfson will give some background on the historical development and deployment of solar energy and then focus on the present-day boom in solar photovoltaics, especially in Vermont. Wolfson will also give a brief description of how these remarkable devices work, and take a look at the future of photovoltaic and other solar energy systems. (Photo credit: Brett Simison)

Storymatters

Wednesday, March 22 at 4 p.m.

Please come and share and listen to stories on the theme of animals (wild and domesticated). Location: Vermont Room.

Tax Forms

The library has a selection of federal tax forms and instruction booklets. The Vermont State Department of Taxes no longer distributes tax forms at the library, but you can get help ordering them here.

Explore the night sky with the Library Telescope

The library purchased an Orion StarBlast 4.5" telescope. Ilsley cardholders who are 18 or older can borrow the telescope for a week at a time.
