Rituals of separation : a South Korean memoir of identity and belonging

Elizabeth Rice
Thursday, July 6
at 4 pm

Come hear Elizabeth read from her first book, Rituals of Separation, a love song to a cross-cultural childhood and an exploration of issues of belonging, loss, and cultural identity. Elizabeth will discuss the impact of growing up in Korea at a pivotal juncture in that country's history, when South Korea was still recovering from a horrific war that divided the nation into two, industrializing at a rapid pace, and seeing the burgeoning of a democracy movement that would eventually lead to the toppling of a line of dictators.

Reading Frederick Douglass
Friday, July 14
12:00 p.m. -1:00 p.m.

Join us as we read together the fiery July 5, 1852 speech in which the great abolitionist orator Frederick Douglass took exception to being asked to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This is a participatory event. Community members are invited to join in the reading. Copies of the speech will be provided.

Museum and Park Passes

National Moth Month Celebration Saturday, July 29th, at 8:30 p.m.

Join the Otter Creek Audubon Society for an informational presentation at Ilsley on the huge diversity and abundance of moths in Vermont followed by an outdoor black light session at the Middlebury Parent Child Center, 126 Monroe St. at 9:30 -11:00 pm to see what moths are flying in mid-summer. Local moth experts will be on hand to help us with moth identification and biology.

Gorge: My journey up Kilimanjaro at 300 pounds
Kara Richardson Whitely
Saturday, July 22
at 1 p.m.

Kara Richardson Whitely will read from her book about climbing Tanzania's Mount Kilimanjaro weighing as much as 300 pounds. Kara's talk will address issues of positive self-image, food addiction/binge eating recovery, helping others (all three of her Kilimanjaro hikes raised funds for AIDS orphans in Africa) and the benefits of movement and spending time in nature.
