April 2018

First Wednesday
Talk:
Understanding
Scripture
April 4, 7 p.m.

Middlebury professor emeritus John Keenan considers how we come to understand scripture and gain an interfaith reading of the text by stepping back to see it in context and by stepping aside the text to see parallels and similarities with other traditions.

Middlebury Mac User Group Meeting
April 5, 7 pm

The Middlebury Mac User Group shares information regarding Apple products, including Macintosh computers, iPhones, iPads, and the Apple watch.

Compost Workshop
Wednesday, April 11 at 5 p.m.

This free workshop from the Addison County Solid Waste Management District will cover the basics of backyard composting, including information on why food scraps should be diverted from the landfill, how to set up and manage a pile, uses for finished compost, and troubleshooting tips.

Migration patterns of the Golden-Winged Warbler
Thursday, April 12, 7
p.m.

Light level geolocators allow biologists to track birds on their migration journeys. Join Audubon Vermont's Mark LaBarr and Margaret Fowle for a discussion on migration and wintering locations of Golden and Blue-winged warblers fitted with geolocators in the Middlebury area and across the Champlain Valley. Sponsored by the Otter Creek Audubon Society and Audubon Vermont.

Life in a Jar: The Irena Sendler
Project
Tuesday April 17,
7p.m.

Author Jack Mayer will discuss his writing process and inspiration for his two books, Life in a Jar: The Irena Sendler Project and Before the Court of Heaven. Life in a Jar is creative non-fiction about the Warsaw ghetto. Before the Court of Heaven is historical fiction inspired by the history of how Germany's Weimar democracy became the Third Reich. Sponsored by the A.A.U.W.

Donald Trump In
The White House
Monday, April 23 at 10:30 a.m.
Matt Dickinson

Despite fears of his authoritarian tendencies, stoked in part by his own use of social media, Donald Trump has, to date, proved to be a rather weak president – a weakness consistent with that of previous presidents governing under similar circumstances. But history also suggests weak presidents can be the most dangerous. In this talk, Middlebury College Professor of Political Science Matt Dickinson will assess President Trump's record so far, and what we might expect going forward. Sponsored by the Addison County Retired Teachers Association.
