December 2018

First Wednesday Talk
The Wyeths: First Family of American Art
December 5 at 7 p.m.

Shelburne Museum director Thomas Denenberg discusses the Wyeths—N. C. (1882–1945), Andrew (1917–2009), and Jamie (b. 1946)—and offers new perspectives on these three painters.

Middlebury Mac User Group
Thursday, December 6, 7 - 8:30 p.m.

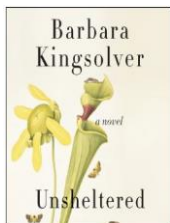

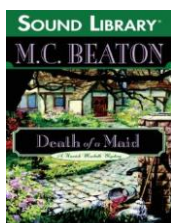

For our December meeting, everyone is invited to demonstrate their favorite iPad or other apps. We are especially interested in apps that don't come as standard equipment but that we have discovered and added to our devices. After that, there will be a presentation on how to use gmail with the iPhone, including how to delete old emails. As always, the rest of the evening will be for Q & A. So bring your devices and we'll help each other have more fun and be more productive. All welcome!

Technology Help

Mondays, 10 – 12
Tuesdays, 3 – 5
Wednesdays, 12:30 – 2:30
Thursdays, 11:00 – 1:00
Fridays, 12:00 – 2:00

Smartphones and computers are versatile tools. By teaching you a few basic concepts, our student tech helpers can help you make the most of these powerful, multifunctional devices. Bring your questions to our tech helpers at the scheduled times and gain the confidence to master these novel technologies.

“I’m a Good Person! Isn’t That Enough?”

An interactive workshop on white privilege with author Debby Irving

December 2, 1- 3:00 p.m.

Location: The Congregational Church of Middlebury.

In this workshop, led by Debby Irving, author of Waking Up White, participants will gain a greater understanding of how racism taps into our deepest fears. A second workshop will be held on January 27 from 3 – 5:00 p.m., also at the Congregational Church entitled, “Leveling the Playing Field: Interrupting Patterns of Privilege.” Sponsored by the Congregational Church of Middlebury, UCC, SURJ Middlebury (Showing Up for Racial Justice), Middlebury College, The Vermont Book Shop, and Ilsley Public Library.

Tuesday, December 4
