February 2019

First Wednesday
Talk February 6, 7
pm

Most Americans associate evangelicals with the hard-right precincts of the Republican Party. But, as Dartmouth religion professor Randall Balmer explains, evangelicism in America has a much longer and more complex history, including a distinguished pedigree of working with progressive reforms. What happened?

High Noon
Thursday, February 28
at 6 p.m.

High Noon will be our first film in our new series on courage. This 1952 Western classic pits an honest marshal against a criminal gang out to take over the town. When no one will stand with him, what will he do? Gary Cooper, Grace Kelly and a wonderful supporting cast create great drama as the moment of truth arrives and courage is called for.

Technology Help in February

Mondays, 10 – 12

Thursdays, 1:00 – 3:00

Fridays, 3:00 – 5:00

Smartphones and computers are versatile tools. By teaching you a few basic concepts, our student tech helpers can help you make the most of these powerful, multifunctional devices. Bring your questions to our tech helpers at the scheduled times and gain the confidence to master these novel technologies.

Panel Discussion of Proposed Environmental Resolutions

Monday, February 25 at 7 p.m.

Please join Middlebury College students and community members for a discussion concerning two Middlebury Town Meeting resolutions addressing climate change and renewable energy to be voted on Tues. Mar. 5th. These are non-binding resolutions encouraging the State of Vermont and the Town of Middlebury to pursue efforts to transition from fossil fuels to renewable energy sources. Co-sponsored by the Middlebury College Sunday Night Environmental Group and concerned Middlebury citizens.
