First Wednesday
Talk
Natural Icons and
National Identity:
Frederic Church's
Landscapes
May 1, 7 pm

Frederic Church painted landscapes of distinctive American features, including Natural Bridge in Virginia and Niagara Falls in New York. Eleanor Jones Harvey, senior curator at the Smithsonian American Art Museum, explores how and why we used these American landscapes to distinguish the scale and scope of our cultural ambitions.

Middlebury
Community
Classic
Film Club
On the Waterfront
Tuesday,
May 9 at 6
pm

On the Waterfront, our third film this spring, pits the power of a violent organization against one imperfect man. Can this lone dockworker stand up to the crushing force of a corrupt union boss and his gang? This is a story of love, power, ethics and personal crisis starring the young Marlon Brando. Eva Marie Saint, Rod Steiger, Lee J. Cobb and Karl Malden make career-defining performances bringing this 1954 drama to life.

Engaging Racism Discussion
Friday, May 10, May 24
2:30 - 4 pm

The Engaging Racism group meets twice a month and provides a space for members of the community to read and discuss short articles, explore contemporary issues of race and racism, examine their own understanding of the way race and racism impact their lives, and share strategies for addressing racism in individual relationships and within the broader community. For more information and to be added to the listserv, email Renee at rwells@middlebury.edu

Middlebury Macintosh User Group
Monday, May 6 at 7 pm

The Middlebury Mac User Group (MidMUG) shares information regarding Apple products, including Macintosh computers, iPhones, iPads, and the Apple watch. All are welcome, no matter your level of expertise. During this meeting, we'll learn how to make personalized greeting cards, picture books, photo albums, and calendars using Photos or iPhotos. The rest of the evening will be for Q & A. So bring your devices and we'll help each other have more fun and be more productive. For more information, email MidMUG2018@mail.com

What You Didn't Know about
Evangelicalism
Wednesday, May
22, 7 p.m.

Most Americans associate evangelicals with the hard-right precincts of the Republican Party. But as Dartmouth religion professor Randall Balmer explains, evangelicalism in America has a much longer and more complex history, including a distinguished pedigree of working for progressive reforms. What happened? This talk was originally scheduled to take place on February 6.
