Summer Reading Challenge Kickoff

This year Ilsley Public Library is again offering a summer reading challenge for adults that complements the youth services summer reading program. This is an opportunity for adults to participate in the excitement that children enjoy each summer. Choose library materials from any of several different categories, write a brief review, and earn a raffle ticket for a chance to win fabulous prizes donated by our business community. Sign up today!

Our summer reading theme is outer space and we'll be hosting a series of space-related community events, including the following:

FREE Film Screening: Star Wars VI: Return of the Jedi at the Marquis Theatre
Wednesday, June 26 at 6:30 p.m.

Talk on Black Holes
Middlebury College Professor Eilat Glikman, Tuesday, July 2 at 7 p.m.

Engaging Racism Discussion
Monday, June 3 10:30 – noon
and Friday, June 21, 2:30 – 4 p.m.

The Engaging Racism group meets twice a month and provides a space for members of the community to read and discuss short articles, explore contemporary issues of race and racism, examine their own understanding of the way race and racism impact their lives, and share strategies for addressing racism in individual relationships and within the broader community. For more information and to be added to the listserv, email Renee at rwells@middlebury.edu

Middlebury Community Classic Film Club

African Queen*
Thursday, June 13 at 6 p.m.

The African Queen (1951) is our final film this spring. Humphrey Bogart and Katharine Hepburn need courage just to contemplate their dangerous river journey during World War 1. But it's Hepburn's strength that makes all of the difference as she pursues a seemingly impossible mission. The relationship between these outstanding actors blends drama, romance and even comedy to make this a fitting conclusion to our series.
